Greeting Cards (Thank You, Get Well Soon, and Praying for You): Include quotations from Chapel Library materials.

Doctrinal Note

Chapel Library is a ministry of Mt. Zion Bible Church, which holds to the London Baptist Confession of 1689. While this confession is not inspired, we believe that it is a faithful expression of the foundational doctrines of Scripture. We respect the Westminster Confession of Faith of 1646 and the Savoy Declaration of 1658, which serve as the basis for our confession. Chapel Library does not agree with every doctrinal view of the authors it publishes. We urge our readers to follow the Bereans, who “searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so” (Act 17:11). God holds each believer responsible to discern false doctrine: “Prove all things; hold fast that which is good” (1Th 5:21).

Studies in the Scriptures

Issues from years 1932 -1953 are available online and in print.

Arthur W. Pink edited the monthly magazine Studies in the Scriptures from 1922 through 1953. These issues were masterpieces of biblical exposition and had a great impact on the world for doctrinal truth. Martyn Lloyd-Jones told a young minister friend to read A. W. Pink to help his preaching. Chapel Library has printed issues from years 1932 through 1953, a total of 264 issues, and makes these available freely upon request, up to the $20 free limit. Please let us know which issues you are interested in, and we will send them. The cost of one issue is $1.10. Most issues are about 28 pages long with several articles on various doctrinal and practical topics.

Charles H. Spurgeon

Well-loved English Baptist pastor and writer.

The Divine Compassion of God: This booklet on Genesis 6:6 and Ezekiel 33:1-11 shows God's compassion for the lost. God "has no pleasure in their death. This does not imply that the wicked shall not die. No. The wicked shall be turned into hell...But...God did not kindle hell in order to gratify His revenge [or] to get vent to His blind fury...He will finally condemn the unbelieving ...not because He delights to do so, but because He...love[s] righteousness."

Having the Spirit shows the absolute necessity of the Spirit's presence in a believer's life. If you do not have the Spirit, you have no part in Christ, no holiness of heart, and no right to be considered a Christian. Believers in Christ are those who have the Spirit, and they will manifest ten clear marks in their lives.

The Warnings of God's Word is a bold exhortation to those who do not know Jesus Christ, to seek Him with all their hearts. "The Scriptures are full of these warnings...that if we miss Christ we have missed everything. Why? 'For in Him are found all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge' (Col 2:3). In Him is found all that God holds dear for sinful man."

Christ the Object of True Saving Faith: Pastor Shelton begins this booklet by showing us that we must put our faith in Christ alone. “Paul said he was saved for a pattern, an example, an illustration of how God would save poor sinners. Therefore each one whom God saves will have, to a greater or lesser degree, the same repentance and faith as exercised by the apostle. He will be slain by that Law and stand guilty before God crying for mercy upon the basis of the shed blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. He will cry after Christ; he will count all things but loss for Christ; he will give up his dreams, his plans, his ambitions, yes, even the world, that he might know the Lord Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior, Deliverer and Lover of his soul.”—from The Word of God and Sin

“Churches are incredibly vulnerable at particular historical moments. Because of this, church leaders need to carefully shepherd their flocks to prepare them for that flash point when temptations are many. After all, ‘the tongue is a fire’ and ‘a world of iniquity’ and is often ‘set on fire of hell’ (Jam 3:1-12). This is why there are many opportunities for unrighteous fire in a church.”—from When Someone Leaves the Church

All of Grace ^s by Charles H. Spurgeon: "Reader, do you mean business in reading these pages? If so, we are agreed at the outset; but nothing short of your finding Christ and heaven is the business aimed at here. Oh that we may seek this together! I do so by dedicating this little book with prayer. Will not you join me by looking up to God, and asking him to bless you while you read?"—from Chapter One.

How to Read the Free Grace Broadcaster

We are constantly amazed at the Lord's goodness to us at Chapel Library, and we are delighted that He has greatly increased the circulation and use of the Free Grace Broadcaster. Encouraging and critical letters that we have received have inspired us to outline some suggestions for reading the FGB.

First, we encourage you to read the FGB prayerfully. Most of the articles in the FGB were originally sermons, preached by faithful men of God such as Spurgeon, Ryle, and the Puritans. As we should prepare our hearts on the Lord's Day to receive the Word of God preached, we think it wise to prepare our hearts to receive the Word "preached-in-print."

Secondly, we suggest that you read the FGB sequentially. Many of our readers may not have time either to read an entire issue at one sitting or to read it in its entirety over a few days or weeks. Therefore, some skip around, looking for favorite authors and preachers to read first. Likewise, some may find the title of one article more provocative than others and may read only those titles that reveal easily identifiable contents. For this reason, the editor always tries to make each article useful and edifying as a "stand alone." However, if our readers will read consecutively from the first article throughout, they will discover that the theme actually unfolds more clearly and powerfully. The first article always defines or introduces its subject, and therefore it prepares the reader for the following articles. For instance, reading the FGB on Secret Sins, Obadiah Sedgwick's "An Examination of Secret Sins" defines the three ways that Scripture presents secret sin. Each following article further describes, supports, examines, or applies that subject—the dangers of secret sins, the hindrance of prayer because of them, God's view of them, and God's judgment of them. Finally, Octavius Winslow blessedly takes our reprovved and stirred hearts to the cross of Calvary to find our cleansing in Christ. The accumulative effect of reading these articles consecutively is quite powerful and helpful in grasping a broad view of the theme. While each article speaks of Christ and Scripture, the last articles usually have the strongest declarations of the gospel and urgent appeals to believe in Christ. Sequential reading will usually give each reader a good summary and a better grasp of the theme.

Thirdly, we suggest that you read the footnotes carefully. Of all that we have done to make the FGB more useful to a wide range of readers, adding footnotes has brought the best response and the most encouraging letters. We purposely choose articles from faithful preachers and authors from the past so that we may hear God's truth echoing with one voice down through the ages. However, English usage has changed since the days of the Puritans and of Spurgeon. Modern readers often find older authors and preachers difficult to read. Our solution has not been to "dumb down" our authors' writings. Rather, we have chosen to update punctuation to modern usage and to define archaic words (using older dictionaries, such as Webster's 1828 Dictionary of the English Language, and modern dictionaries, such as the authoritative Oxford English Dictionary); to define theological terms (using the best systematic theologies, theological dictionaries, and confessions), and to identify historical references. For example, by reading the footnotes, readers have discovered that when a Puritan preacher referred to "Austin," he was speaking of the early church theologian Augustine (A.D. 354-430). Likewise, our readers have learned the meaning of justification, sanctification, adoption, sins of omission and commission, covenant of redemption, and numerous other theological terms. This is important because many of our readers are Third World pastors, prison inmates, younger readers, or parents using the FGB for family worship. These readers seldom have access to dictionaries with archaic English definitions, theological dictionaries, or church history.

Fourthly and finally, we recommend that you read each article discerningly. Apart from the inspired, infallible Word of God, the sermons and writings of the best preachers and authors are limited and stained with human error. Therefore, Chapel Library does not agree with every theological view of the authors we print. We often publish articles by men with whom we strongly disagree in some points of theology. In order to make this clear, each FGB has a disclaimer directly inside the front cover. We make use of our authors to speak God's truth on the doctrines with which we agree. We therefore trust that our readers are wise and discerning enough to understand that we are not recommending or endorsing everything that a preacher or author believes because we use his work. "Prove all things; hold fast that which is good" (1Th 5:21). Furthermore, the editor works hard to let each man speak with his own voice. However, editing large articles into smaller, coherent ones is a challenge. There is always the temptation to make an author "say" what we want him to say. In light of this, we regularly use several grammatical devices—according to the Chicago Manual of Style 15th Edition—to let our readers know where we have made our edits. Frequent use of ellipses "..." lets our readers know where we have deleted small or large amounts of text. The use of brackets "[]" lets our readers know where we have added or changed words for clarity. These changes may be for grammatical or theological reasons; sometimes the editor makes large deletions of text just because he needs the space. Our consciences, therefore, are clear as we send each issue of the FGB to you.

Our heart's desire is to glorify our Triune God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; to edify God's eternally loved and blood-bought people; and to call the lost to faith in the resurrected Lord of Glory, Jesus Christ. We delight in collecting these great sermons and articles and editing them together to bring God's truth from ages past to readers today. We pray you will consider these suggestions and recommendations and receive the greatest profit in reading the Free Grace Broadcaster.

About the Authors

C. H. Spurgeon (1834-1892)

Charles Haddon Spurgeon was born in Essex, England, in 1834. Both his father and grandfather being pastors, young Spurgeon was raised in the knowledge of the Christian gospel, and converted in 1850. He began preaching the same year and soon was called to pastor a village church. Without further formal education, at age 19 (in 1854), he was called to pastor the New Park Street Chapel, a Baptist church in London. It later became the Metropolitan Tabernacle, where Spurgeon ministered to almost 6,000 people each Sunday and became much beloved. He published his sermons weekly, wrote a monthly magazine, and founded a college for pastors, two orphanages, an old-folks home, a gospel literature distribution society, and several mission stations. He continued to preach the gospel until his death in January, 1892. With many gifts of oration and explanation, the real secret to Spurgeon's success was his full understanding of God's grace and deep trust in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

Horatius Bonar (1808-1889)

Horatius Bonar was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, the brother of Andrew Bonar. Following his education at the University of Edinburgh, he maintained an active and powerful ministry for more than half a century. He pastored one of the main Presbyterian churches in Edinburgh until his death, which became known for its solid Bible teaching and revival. Throughout his life, he avoided sensationalism and was a calm, patient, solemn, and steady writer. He was a winner of souls and a great preacher and hymnwriter (writing 600 hymns, over 100 of which are still in use). Like his contemporary Spurgeon, he had a special gift to put great truths into plain language. His tracts and books have become Christian classics, being in continual use since their writing.

A. W. Pink (1886-1952)

Arthur W. Pink was born in Nottingham England, and born again of the Spirit of God at the age of 22. He briefly studied at Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, USA, before his pastoral work among independent churches in Colorado, California, Kentucky, and South Carolina. He taught in Sydney, Australia, before returning to his native England in 1934. He took permanent residence in Lewis, Scotland, in 1940, remaining there 12 years until his death. Most of his works first appeared as articles in the Studies in the Scriptures, published every month without interruption from 1922 to 1953 (Chapel Library makes issues from years 1932 through 1953 available, see page 4). Familiar with the whole range of revelation, Mr. Pink was rarely sidetracked from the great themes of Scripture: grace, justification, and sanctification.

J. C. Ryle (1816-1900)

John Charles Ryle served the Lord as a minister of the gospel in parish churches within the Church of England for almost forty years. He became Bishop of Liverpool in 1880, and came to international prominence as preacher, Bible expositor, and author. Today he is known for his plain and lively writings on practical and spiritual themes, in a style deliberately used to reach ordinary people. His great aim was to encourage strong, serious Christian living. His tracts and books sold in the millions in the late 1800s, with many republished today. Ryle's successor as Bishop of Liverpool commented, "The words of such a man acquire new force as we read them. Ryle lived near God, and God lived through him."

Lee Roy Shelton, Jr. was born and raised in New Orleans, Louisiana, where he later became associate pastor in his father's Baptist church. While he did not have the opportunity to attend college or seminary, as a young man he devoured the writings of Spurgeon, Pink, the Puritans, and Lloyd-Jones. In 1970 he began a church, Christian bookstore, and gospel outreach in Litchfield, Minnesota. There he developed a God-given burden to share classic Christian literature from prior centuries freely worldwide, beginning to reproduce sermon booklets on a mimeograph machine. In 1978 the small ministry moved to Pensacola, Florida, where Mount Zion Bible Church was founded. In subsequent years were added printing presses, the prison ministry (1984), the Chapel Library audio tape ministry (1987), the Free Grace Broadcaster quarterly magazine (1988), and Mount Zion Bible Institute (1995).

Most courses consist of a text to read with questions for each chapter, take from one to four months to complete, and include 4 to 20 lessons. Each lesson takes 1 to 4 hours to complete. The courses consist of 5 x 8.5 inch (A5) study guide booklets, some with a separate reading booklet or paperback.

We mostly use texts from authors of the past, such as C. H. Spurgeon (Baptist, 1834-1892), H. Bonar (Presbyterian, 1808-1889), J. C. Ryle (Anglican, 1816-1900), and A. W. Pink (independent, 1886-1952). The courses are used in several ways:

1. individuals studying independently,
2. groups studying together (including church, school, home, and prison groups),
3. correspondence study: individuals mail lessons to MZBI for written feedback.
